TO: The Honorable City Council

FROM: David Whitaker, Director
City Council Research & Analysis Division (RAD)

DATE: September 22, 2009

RE: Resolution Rescheduling City Council Meetings Due to Budget-Required Furlough Days (Executive Order 2009-3)

The Research & Analysis Division (RAD) presents the attached resolution at the request of President Kenneth V. Cockrel, Jr., which reschedules certain City Council meetings.

Specifically, the attached resolution reflects the following Council meeting changes due to the impact of Mayor Bing's Budget Required Furlough Days:

The Public Health and Safety Committee meeting dates affected by Budget Required Furlough Days will move their current meeting date and time to: Tuesdays at 1:00 pm.

The Budget Finance and Audit Committee meeting dates affected by Budget Required Furlough Days will move their current meeting date and time to: Tuesdays at 9:00 am.

The Neighborhood & Community Services Standing Committee will not meet and stand in recess on their Budget Required Furlough Day.

Formal Sessions of the City Council affected by the Budget Required Furlough Days are to be held Tuesdays at 11:00 am.

At this time, it appears the Internal Operations Standing Committee, and the Planning & Economic Development Standing Committee are not affected by the Budget Required Furlough Days due to the Veteran's holiday, and Council Winter Recess.

The attached resolution becomes effective upon passage of a two-thirds majority of Council Members voting in the affirmative, and expires upon the commencement of Council's winter recess.
